SHOW WINDOWS OF CITY IN GALA
DRESS READY FOR BIG DAY

Santa Ana's shop windows are already being decked out in gala attire.

Local merchants are determined to put their best foot forward next Saturday when Dollar Day visitors begin to throng the city's streets.

A number of the stores have completed their special window trimming, while at still others the merchants are busy as bees getting things in shape for Dollar Day, which promises to be the biggest and most successful venture ever attempted by any Orange county city.

Already casual visitors to a number of Santa Ana stores are struck by the wonderfully beautiful and artistic effects that have been attained. Some of the displays rival those during fashion show weeks in the larger cities.

Bargain Displays
The window dressers are being urged to lose no time. Those who have not already begun the work of putting their windows in the best possible shape should begin at once in order that the greatest possible benefit will be derived by every merchant from the special displays.

Attractions for Dollar Day visitors to Santa Ana Saturday will be numerous.

The Santa Ana band will give an open-air concert during the afternoon and evening.

Wonderful Dollar Day bargains will be tastefully and charmingly displayed in the shop windows and in the shops. Many of the merchants are not confining their Dollar Day decorations to the shop windows alone, but are arranging and beautifying their stocks of goods on the shelves inside.

So attractive an appearance will be presented by Santa Ana's downtown business section Saturday that Dollar Day will be as much a social affair permeated with a feeling of cordiality to all as it will be an affair of bargains and trade.

Every restaurant in the city is making special preparations to care for the crowds of out-of-town shoppers who will visit Santa Ana Dollar Day. It is assured that the wants of all will be provided for.

ENGINEERS WANT TO ELIMINATE
THREE TRACK
CROSSINGS

In the preliminary surveys being made for the road to be paved from Placentia through Richfield joining the Santa Ana canyon road at Yorba, the county highway engineers hope to be able to do away with three crossings of the Santa Fe tracks.

At present the road east of Richfield changes from the north side of the Santa Fe to the south side, and half a mile further east, the road crosses again to the north side. It is hoped to be able to make arrangements to keep the road entirely on the north side of the tracks.

At the Yorba bridge, on the north side of the river, the present county road crosses over the tracks of the steam road. The track at this point is high and the approaches of the road are steep. The engineers are considering a plan to have the road go under the track at this point. The Santa Fe is going to co-operate in the elimination of these three crossings, from the paved highway, through crossings may have to be maintained east of Richfield for the accommodation of residents south of the tracks.

The highway commission hopes to be able to secure all necessary deeds to rights of way on the Placentia-Yorba road at an early date, though at present a number of tangles are at hand to be straightened out.

Chief Engineer S. H. Finley, Office Engineer C. R. Wells and the other members of the engineering force are preparing the data so that bids can be opened about April 20 for building four roads in one contract. Those four roads will be the Dyer road, nine-tenths of a mile, in front of the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar Company; the Fairview road, one and a half miles, south from Greenville; the Smeltzer road, six-tenths of a mile, and the Wintersburg road, one mile.

DOPE FIENDS OF OHIO DODGE
NEW LAW

CLEVELAND, Mar. 31.—"Hundreds of drug users are buying cocoa leaves in the raw state and brewing from them a concoction that has the same effect as morphine, opium and other drugs, the sale of which is now barred by federal statutes."

Probation Officer Christian, Cleveland's "dope-fiend expert" makes the announcement, and says drug slaves here have found a loophole in the law, which does not prevent the sale of the raw leaves.

American Charged With Firing Liner La Touraine

PARIS, March 31.—Accused of attempting to destroy the French liner La Touraine by explosives and fire, Raymond Swoboda, an alleged American, is being held in close confinement in Havre today, following his arrest in a Paris Hotel. Although arrested Sunday the news was not given out until today. Officials declare his incarceration will clear the mystery of the fire on the palatial vessel on her voyage from New York to Paris. Swoboda gives Fresno, California, as his birthplace.

FRESNO, Cal., March 31.—Raymond Swoboda is not known in this city. Investigation today tends to show there is no truth in Swoboda's assertion that he was born here.

U. S. Will Not Interfere With Bank Loans to Belligerent World Powers

WASHINGTON, March 31.—A statement making clear that while the government disapproves of loans to warring European nations, it does not consider itself in a position to interfere with transactions between foreign powers and individual bankers, was issued today by the State Department. "The department has received from time to time information to the effect that belligerents have arranged with American banks for credits of various sums," the statement said. "While loans to belligerents are disapproved, the government does not feel justified in interposing objection." Secretary of State Bryan declared this covers the entire situation, including the reported establishment by Morgan and Company of a $100,000,000 credit for Russia and $50,000,000 for France.

CHICAGO IS HELD MEANEST CITY OF WORLD

CHICAGO, Mar. 31.—Chicago is the meanest city in the world," according to figures being compiled by a municipal crime commission. More than ten persons are held up or robbed by pickpockets daily. Burglaries occur in a larger number. Police records show that there are nearly 70 cases of pocket picking, robbery, burglary and larceny reported every day to the Chicago police. Only one-tenth of the offenders are ever arrested. A much smaller per cent of those arrested are ever convicted. There is an average of 20 burglaries per day.

Only a small portion of stolen property is recovered, police records show. Last year the pawn shop department recovered from pawn shops and second hand stores $1,884,153.64 worth of stolen property. In the preceding year $1,697,754.89 worth of property was recovered.

Sergeant Annas, in charge of the pawn shop department, believes that Chicago is headquarters for the best organized fence syndicates in the world, because its centrality makes it ideal for such a place. A Kodak once stolen by a window smasher from a Loop kodak dealer was bought three days later in Galveston, Texas, by a circus cook. Two weeks later it was stolen from him, sold to a Chicago pawn shop and positively identified by the cook.

Smaller in population than either New York or London, Chicago has more crime. In 1913 there were more murders in Chicago than in both of the other two cities combined, and police records for the same year show 1,022 arrests, for robbery and assault. London's 1913 robbery and assault record was 78. Gotham's was 928.

Captain of Detectives O'Brien defends Chicago police on the ground that they have four more square miles to cover than the New York police. Gotham police, he points out, also outnumber them almost four to one.

WANT CHURCHES FREELY USED BY PUBLIC

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The Assembly adopted a constitutional amendment resolution today submitting to voters a proposition to permit churches to be used for socials and other purposes than church services and still be exempt from paying taxes.

Under a recent ruling the attorney general prohibited the use of churches for other than religious services under the tax exemption statute.

General oratory attended the arguments on the Butler bill creating a mile dry zone around all state educational institutions, when it came up for final passage in the Senate today. Butler, Brown and Duncan spoke for the bill, while the opponents, offering himself as an example of the harmlessness of the cigarette, "Noisy Bill" Scott, senator from San Francisco, made a stirring speech against the Phillips anti-cigarette bill in the legislature today.

Assemblyman Phillips of Los Angeles, father of the bill, is declared to be more than ordinarily fond of the "makin's."

Dollar Day April 3—

HOME FOR NEWSPAPERMEN

NEW YORK, March 31.—A proposal to erect a refuge for broken-down or superannuated members of the press of the country on his beautiful 6,000-acre estate in Colorado, is contained in a letter received by newspaper publishers from John B. Walker, former owner of the Cosmopolitan magazine.

Walker has appointed a board of governors consisting of the heads of several large papers in the United States to devise ways and means of building and maintaining the refuge.

Troops Ready to Rush to Mexican Border Fighting

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The situation at Nuevo Laredo is developing unusual seriousness as a result of Mexican revolutionary activities there, according to dispatches today. The matter is declared equally as threatening to Americans as the fight at Matamoros. Military experts express the opinion that troops will be necessary to protect American interests. It is stated that a regiment of infantry stationed at Texas City is awaiting orders to rush to Laredo. Military advances from Laredo declare a strong Villa force is moving on Nuevo Laredo, occupied by the Carranza troops.

AMERICAN DEAD IN SINKING OF STEAMER BY GERMANS

LONDON, March 31.—That one of the passengers of the steamer Falaba to go down with that vessel after it was torpedoed by a German diver was Leon Chester Thresher, a citizen of the United States, is an official announcement today. A strong protest on Thresher's drowning without being given an opportunity to prove his nationality is expected from the American government.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—Leon Chester Thresher, the American citizen drowned when the British steamer Falaba was torpedoed by a German submarine, is a cousin of Dr. Marion Thresher of San Francisco, and is well known in California.

Thresher was well known to mining men on the Pacific coast, and considered one of the most authoritative mining engineers in the United States.

BERLIN (by wireless to Sayville), March 31.—The repulse of Germany's foes in both the eastern and western theaters of war is claimed in a statement by the war office today.

The statement declares the French suffered heavy losses in the Woivre region, near Regnierville, and claimed 720 Russians were captured in the eastern theater.

It is also announced that British and French birdmen are bombarding Bruges, Chistelles and Courtra, but with no damage.

PARIS, March 31.—A great victory for the Austrian army over the Russians attempting to penetrate Dukla Pass is claimed in dispatches today from the front.

The Slav force, the dispatches said, was routed when the Austrians suddenly assumed the offensive and succeeded in re-capturing several towns lost at the south end of the pass.

Another big battle is reported in progress in the Dava and Laboro valleys.

LONDON, March 31.—One more British steamship has been sent to the bottom of the sea by a German submarine. It is the liner Flaminian.

The boat sank off the Scilly Islands, a favorite ground for the operations of the German divers.

The Flaminian of 5500 tons, was en route from Glasgow to Capetown and was sunk Monday.

The first news of the disasters was received today with the landing of thirty-nine members of the Flaminian's crew at Holyhead.

The Ellerman was torpedoed.

PETROGRAD, March 31.—While it is admitted at the war office today that Austrian troops have invaded the Russian province of Bess-Arabia and are also advancing on Chotin, military officials profess to feel no concern over the fact that the left wing of the Slav army is being pushed back thirty-five miles.

In spite of the optimistic declarations of Russian officials the impression is growing that the strength of the Austro-German force in Bukovina has been greatly underestimated.

It is believed to be conducting an aggressive campaign with a view of flanking the Russian armies in Galicia and cutting lines of communication.

Dispatches from Tarnopol say the invading Teutons number between 40,000 and 75,000.

CONSTANTINOPLE (via Berlin and Amsterdam), March 31.—Turkish villages along the Dardanelles are being bombarded by the allied fleet, it is announced today. Aviators are co-operating with the fleet and showing usual activity.

PARIS, March 31.—After seven months of effort the Germans today

50 AUTOS TOUR
COUNTY TO AID
DOLLAR DAY CAMPAIGN

Launching the greatest advertising campaign that Santa Ana merchants have ever attempted to boost the city, more than fifty automobiles left the city hall this morning shortly after 9 o'clock on a tour of Orange county to advertise Dollar Day, Saturday, April 3.

Leading the parade were R. L. Bisby and Harry Kenyon, in a Buick roadster. Bisby acted as official announcer during the parade. He had been provided with a monster megaphone which he "kept going" continuously, exhorting every one to remember Dollar Day and urging those taking part in the parade to "live up to it." The autoists soon took Bisby's hint, blowing their horns with a will.

Slogans and Yells
Practically every machine bore a banner with wording such as the following: "Be Our Guest on Dollar Day, April 3," "Let's Get Acquainted Dollar Day," "150 Free Prizes Dollar Day," "Dollar Day, April 3," "Your $ Will Buy More $ Day."

Before the parade started Secretary Metzgar of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association distributed copies of the three yells which won prizes in the contest held by the Dollar Day committee. It took the motorists and boosters a little time to "get the hang" and school boys all soon "caught on" and began yelling at the full capacity of their lungs.

The second machine in the parade, a Cadillac Eight, driven by H. H. Kelly, bore the Chamber of Commerce drum corps, which lost no time in getting busy with stirring marches.

Decorated
Following the two leading motors came about fifty other cars of all sizes and makes. Many of the cars were decorated with flags in addition to the Dollar Day banners.

The parade left the city hall and went west on Third street to Ross, thence north to Fourth and then east on Fourth en route to Tustin.

George Kellogg was at the wheel of an Auburn, which bore a part of the high school yell corps. P. W. Wisdom & Company had two Coles in the parade, loaded to capacity. The local Chevrolet agents were in line with one of their cars. W. R. Henry had a party in a new Hupmobile touring car.

Some of the Party
Mayor Ey rode with W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., Mrs. R. L. Bisby and City Recorder J. A. Willson. Riding with City Trustee Alderman were Ed Vegely and W. G. Gould. Others in the

SUICIDE CASE IS CLEARED UP
Orange News, March 30: The mystery attached to the finding of the dead body of J. W. Boggess hanging in the willows at the edge of the Santa Ana river on March 18 was cleared up today when the body was identified by two Long Beach men—C. H. Ballard and G. W. Kinney.
Ballard, whose wife is a step-sister of the deceased J. W. Boggess, came up from Long Beach today with G. W. Kinney of that city, to make inquiries concerning the dead man.

The men arrived here too late to view the body, which had been buried this morning. They identified his clothing and the photograph that had been taken of the corpse. Mr. Kinney had been closely associated with Boggess for the last seven or eight years, during which time they had worked together as carpenters in Wyoming, Utah and various parts of this state. Recently they had been located at Long Beach, where Mr. Kinney last saw Boggess on March 12.
Boggess disappeared from Charles City, Ia., twelve years ago. He leaves four sons and three daughters, living in various parts of the United States. He was 57 years of age.

MILK STORY WITH MONETARY MORAL*Aliso Dairy Offers a Dollar-and-a-Half's Worth of Milk For One Dollar*Incidentally Discusses Important Phases of the Milk Business

If you lived in Los Angeles and bought quality milk it would cost you 15 cents per quart for the certified and 12 cents for a guaranteed brand of milk. Then if you decided to move to San Diego you would have to pay 15 cents a quart if you again got the best quality milk. You decide to visit in Oakland or Berkeley and diligently inquire about good, clean milk and are again told that that quality of milk will cost you 15 cents per quart.

The ALISO DAIRY CO. is affording the people of Santa Ana the chance to get practically the same as the above quality of milk ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF OF MILK FOR A DOLLAR. That is, we have a dairy that is equipped to produce clean milk.

Nathan Straus, the noted New York philanthropist, who has done so much for humanity and for the children of our great cities by means of securing clean, honest milk, in an address before the City Club of Los Angeles is quoted as saying that "it is practically impossible to secure a sufficient supply of certified milk from daily washed stables where the cows are bathed and curried and the milkmen have clean suits." The Aliso Dairy Co. is doing the above and doing more; for the milk as soon as it is milked is passed over the sanitary cooler where all of the animal heat is removed and the multiplication of bacteria is retarded.

But this is not all, for all of our utensils that come in contact with the milk in any form are thoroughly sterilized before again used. We are now installing a new, modern 15-horsepower steam boiler so as to do this even better in the future than in the past. Then, too, the new milk room with its brick and cement wall and cement floor will afford just that much more of an element of cleanliness. It costs more to produce clean milk than it does to produce rick milk. Rich milk can be produced in filthy surroundings, and that milk will be filthy. Rich milk to be clean must be produced under sanitary conditions, to be healthy. The cows of the ALISO DAIRY CO. are the best to be had. One herd came from San Diego County and the cows were selected because of the rich quality of their milk. Another herd for the same reason was shipped in from San Luis Obispo County. Then last fall we bought from Mr. E. B. Burns, out near Garden Grove, his herd of 35 cows that he said produced the best milk that was being shipped to Los Angeles. But not satisfied with this we bought Mr. Finney's entire herd, famous for rich milking qualities. All of the herd are Jerseys. So you will see that we are able not alone to give you clean milk, which is of the greatest importance, but also rich milk that every one wants.

The milk of the ALISO DAIRY CO., which you in this city as well as in Newport and Balboa can have delivered to your homes in any quantity of either milk or cream, is really sold at ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF OF MILK FOR A DOLLAR when you consider what you would have to pay for this quality of milk in large cities, if you were fortunate enough to get it at all.

Remember our milk that is left at your door-step is produced at our plant under methods that the inspector of the Los Angeles City Board of Health gives the highest sanitary rating in his district. We have spent DOLLARS for the erection of our plant so as to give good, clean milk to our patrons.

We charge no more for our milk than others do, but when it comes to quality we are really giving you ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF OF MILK FOR A DOLLAR.

Our phone is 485-J. Come out and visit our plant and see for yourself that we are doing all of this and more.—Advertisement—

"DER TAG"

The following extract from the interview with Admiral Von Tirpitz, by Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, published in Collier's, will be a surprise to many readers. For years it has been a common and current story that German naval officers drank an established toast in their quarters and at mess to "Der Tag"—the day when Germany should dispute with Great Britain the supremacy of the seas.
Here is the extract:

"Your Excellency, you ask why Germany would begin war, and American public opinion thinks so. There are many things that have caused Americans to think so. One of them concerns a practice of the German navy.
By books, articles, editorials, Americans have learned of the famous toast drunk by German naval men: "To the Day!"

Admiral von Tirpitz leaned forward with eyes ablaze and said with all his force, though not loudly: "An infamous English lie—that is the explanation! It is an outright falsehood. I say, on my honor as a man and an officer, that I never heard such a toast proposed, never drank such a toast, and never heard of such a toast being proposed or drunk! It is past belief that sensible people should believe such stuff! I can admire at least one thing English—their ingenuity in con-cocting falsehoods and putting them before the world! The fact is that our officers fraternize with and were and are good friends of the officers of other nations. Especially did our officers try to be friendly with the officers of our neighbor, England. I am sure no honorable English officer will say otherwise, or will say that he ever heard that this ridiculous toast, "To the Day!" was ever proposed or drunk, or that he knows any honorable man who says that he heard it. Every honorable English officer will tell you that is a wretched lie."

FACTS VERSUS FICTION

Philadelphia Record

Not very long ago a firm dealing in dairy products issued a circular letter explaining that the Underwood tariff was ruining the business by allowing butter and cheese and condensed milk to come in at prices lower than the cost of production in this country. The force of the circular was slightly impaired by the export of two carloads of butter from Chicago to Europe, with the confident expectation of getting more foreign orders. The canned milk exported from California was worth $280,000 in 1912, $426,000 in 1913 and $500,000 in 1914.
It was about the only canned article of food the exportation of which did not show a decrease last year.

HAPPINESS OF AGE

William Paley

It is not for youth alone that the great parent of creation hath provided. Happiness is found with the purring cat no less than with the playful kitten; in the armchair of dozing age as well as in either the sprightliness of the dance or the animation of the chase. To novelty, to acuteness of sensation, to hope, to ardor of pursuit, succeeds what is, in no inconsiderable degree, an equivalent for them all—perception of ease. Herein is the exact difference between the young and the old. The young are not happy but when enjoying pleasure; the old are happy when free from pain.

COUPLE, MARRIED 60 YEARS, PASSES AWAY

SHEBOYGAN, Wis.—After more than sixty years of wedded life, Mr.
and Mrs. August Spohrler, aged 83 and 86 respectively, have died within an hour of each other.

Mrs. Spohrler had been an invalid for thirty years, during which time she was cared for by her husband until he became ill six weeks ago. Since that time the aged couple have prayed to be permitted to die together.

The husband passed away first and his wife followed fifty minutes later without knowing her husband had died.

EXCELLENT CONTEST

Miss Isabel Lopez Wins the Medal; Work of Miss Lilley Highly Praised

A good sized audience at the Intermediate high school, encouraged the contestants from Spurgeon school to put forth their highest efforts last evening and the excellent program given reflected high honors on the faithful and efficient training of Miss Naoma Lilley, the popular principal of Spurgeon school, who, in addition to her duties in this capacity, found the time to devote many hours in helping her pupils to make the splendid showing which won so many compliments for each contestant last night.

Miss Isabel Lopez, the winsome twelve-year-old daughter of Mrs. Olive Lopez, of South Birch street, was the "star" orator of the evening, her reading, "The Story of Patsy," winning the pretty silver medal awarded by the W. C. T. U.

Miss Le Verne Manning won second place in the interesting contest, which was marked by an ease of manner and perfect memory work of all pupils, which would have been a credit to orators many years their senior.

Mrs. D. Gervais and Mrs. Lillian Kemp, of Anaheim, who are excellent elocutionists themselves, and are now identified with the W. C. T. U. contest work at their home city, were two of the impartial judges, the third party being Miss Viola Hill.

Miss Hill, who is a high school graduate of Santa Ana, was chosen to present the silver medal, and she gave a clever little talk in which she expressed her "kindred feeling" with the little contestants, because she had often spoke on the same platform during her school days in Santa Ana.

The songs "Voices of Freedom," "Vote for Prohibition" and "Our Jubilee," given by a chorus of Spurgeon school pupils, were features of the enjoyable program, which closed with a hearty hand-clapping for Miss Lilley, to whom a great share of the success of this entertainment is due.

ELECT OFFICERS

Musical Ass'n. Adopts Constitution Drafted by Special Committee

A called meeting of the musical teachers and musical people of Santa Ana and vicinity was held at the Conservatory studio last evening. A constitution which had been drafted by a special committee was adopted and the following officers elected: President, Mr. Percy Richards; first vice president, Mrs. Minna Roper Viersen; recording secretary, Sarah A. Gardner; corresponding secretary, Mr. Alan A. Revell; treasurer, Mary S. Ely; trustees, Francis J. Haynes, Mrs. W. B. Snow, Mrs. A. J. Padgham. Mr. C. A. Gustlin is county vice president, having been appointed by the state association of which the local society will be a branch. "The purpose of this association is the promotion of the true culture of music by interchange of ideas, advancement of all musical interests of the community and of the musical profession and the furtherance of professional fraternity among musicians." This society with a membership of the leading musicians and music lovers is bound to become a strong influence for the musical atmosphere of the city and vicinity.

A meeting of the directors was held immediately following the meeting of the evening to plan for a reception and program to be given in April of which announcement will be made later.

At Evening School

Prof. J. A. Cranston will deliver a lecture on "School Laws," tonight at the evening school, at 8:30 o'clock, in the music room, No. 231 of the main building.

The public is invited to hear this lecture which promises to be of special interest.

Entertain Baracas

The missionary ladies of the M. E. Church South were hostesses Friday evening to the members of the Baraca class and their teacher, E. J. Page, in the church parlors.

During the evening the boys enjoyed boxing bouts and various games and later were served with an abundance of ice cream and cake, which made the hostesses forever the friends of the boys with a sweet tooth. Mrs. T. H. Lighton, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Page, Mrs. James Nuckolls and Mrs. Armstrong served the long table, which was prettily decorated with feathery braid wreath in large bowls and a boutonniere was found at each plate. Jolly impromptu toasts were given and after refreshments, a social time was enjoyed with singing.

American Woman's Republic

Mrs. Katherine H. Peck, governor of California A. W. R., Mrs. M. E. Jenkins, chairman Dist. Com. No. 1 of Los Angeles, Dr. Margaret Goettler, chairman Dist. Com. of Pasadena, would be pleased to meet all members of A. W. R., Saturday, April 3, at 2 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Drake, 514 West Fourth street, Santa Ana. Orange and Fullerton A. W. R. are also invited to be present.

Play Auction Bridge

Mrs. W. E. Winslow opened her attractive home at 712 Bush street, in delightful hospitality yesterday, when she entertained a few friends at a pretty 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon at auction bridge.

Japanese wistaria and sprays of maiden hair fern, artistically arranged in a fern bowl, centered the table while dainty water colored cards decorated with the face of a pretty maiden, marked the places of each guest.

Bouquets of white lilacs added their fragrant charm to the living rooms and here the company spent a merry afternoon at auction bridge. Mrs. Hiram Connell won long table, and at the close of the animated session at cards, and Mrs. C. V. Davis received the consolation trophy.

Those present were Mesdames Addie M. Collins, C. V. Davis, J. I. Clark, M. A. Yarnell, Hiram Connell, Chas. Kelly, S. C. Kendall, J. D. Thomas, George Briggs, John Tubbs and Jack Porter of Orange.

Visit Tustin Lodge

Sixteen members of the Knights of Pythias Lodge of Santa Ana, paid a surprise visit to the Tustin K. of P. Lodge last evening, their coming being a secret, kept from all but the presiding officers of the Tustin lodge. The visitors brought with them a bountiful supply of refreshments, and after the regular lodge meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, during which the "spread" was served.

Chorus Practice

The Baracas and Philatheas of the First Presbyterian church held their regular chorus practice at the church last evening, with good attendance. The old-fashioned entertainment, under the direction of Prof. Garstang, will be given Friday evening, April 23, at the First Presbyterian church.

Pleasant Dancing Party

Miss Elsie Lutz entertained a few of her friends at a pleasant dancing party Monday evening at her home on North Main street. The spacious rooms were adorned with clusters of lovely roses and the victrola furnished music while the merry company danced.

A delicious supper was served at the dining table, centered with fragrant carnations, at the close of the delightful evening. The guests included Misses Ruth Visel, Marie Briggs, Wilhelmina Cavin, Elsie Parker, Katherine Lutz; Messrs. Howard Timmons, Louis Briggs, Herbert Kendall, Dean Collier, Lester Carden and Elmer Prince.

THE REGISTER'S DOLLAR DAY OFFERING

General F. H. Case was among the Santa Ana business men in Los Angeles today.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Ford, who are touring California, spent Monday with Mrs. J. E. Gowen. Mr. Ford is president of the State Bank of Galva, Ill., and one of its most prominent citizens. They think Santa Ana one of the prettiest places visited, especially admiring the roses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks of 526 South Sycamore street, have been entertaining their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks and son of Watertown, Wis., for several days. The visitors left this morning to attend the San Diego Exposition.

Miss Cella Morehead arrived this morning from Long Beach for a week's visit with her friend, Miss Jennie Watson.

County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell is visiting schools at San Juan Capistrano and Serra today.

Henry Meyer, of Orange, was a business visitor here today.

AMUSEMENTS

Clune's Program

As usual, the performance which was presented at Clune's Theatre last evening was a winner. All of the vaudeville numbers were put on in excellent style, they being varied enough to suit everybody.

The star play for the program was a 3-act Essanay drama, entitled "Stars Their Courses Change," featuring that celebrated movie actor, Francis X. Bushman. This picture is of a rather unusual nature, but has a strong meaning, and will be appreciated by all who love to see emotional and dramatic acting of the finer sort.

As a special affair for Dollar Day, Manager Russell is going to give away 20 free admissions to the matinee performance.

Dollar Day visitors will find 20 numbers displayed in the lobby at our theater. Anyone presenting a copy of the Register bearing one of the numbers, will be admitted to the matinee free.

Take note of Clune's big ad. in this edition for the special performances on this day.

Temple Theatre

Gaby Deslys, the celebrated international star, and the sensation of two continents, makes her first and exclusive appearance in motion pictures in an original story of the stage, "Her Triumph," produced in Paris by the Famous Players Film Company.

When the news was disclosed, some months ago, that Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players Film Company, had engaged the international favorite on the eve of her departure for France after her triumphant appearance on the New York stage to appear in a motion picture production to be staged in Paris, the announcement was a seven days' wonder in theatrical and film circles and among the general public. To millions of people throughout the country who had read for months in the daily newspapers of the beautiful and fascinating Gaby's amazing stage achievements, this contemplated motion picture production with the illustrious star represented the only opportunity of ever becoming directly acquainted with her charm and individuality. This opportunity is now materialized to a degree far beyond the expectations of the most exacting, for on the screen the wonderful Gaby is even more bewitching than she has been in all her previous stage performances.

"Her Triumph" was written around the star, and is so constructed as to display to the utmost advantage Mlle. Deslys' versatile and astonishing talents.

The production introduces many novelties, such as the Dance Deslys, a realistic and impressive reproduction of the interior of a theatre, with a complete company on the stage, numerous and other striking effects. Of no little importance, also, is the presence in the cast of Harry Pilcer, who has been associated with Gaby since her first visit to this country, as her dancing partner, and who appears in her chief support in this notable film production. The feature will be at the Temple Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

BOWLAND SUES ON DEVENNEY NON-PAYMENT

Another action in which 170 acres of sugar beet land southwest of Santa Ana is concerned was started today when F. P. Bowland brought suit to declare William Devenney in default on a payment of $5000 on the purchase price, $40,000.

Recently Fred Devenney sued William Bowland, declaring that they were partners in their interest in the ranch, and that William Devenney ought to pay him one-half of the proceeds of their farming operations on the ranch. In that action Fred states

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat
Which Clogs Kidneys, Then
the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys, and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION OR GAS

Pape's Diapepsin Makes Upset Stomachs Feel Fine In Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Advertisement.

Food and Gold Tree --- THE HARMAN AVOCADO --- Food and Gold Tree

The best shaped and handsomest evergreen tree, the best frost resister, the best and most regular bearer, and the finest eating Avocado on the market.

Big Producer and Money Maker

All our nursery stock is grown in the open field and budded to 2 year seedlings and that's why the HARMAN Avocado is hardy, superior and a success.

"THE HARMAN HAS FOR SOME REASON STOOD THE BEST OF ALL OF THEM"—LUTHER BURBANK.

"IT IS NOT ONLY A FRUIT—IT IS A FOOD AND I THINK WE WILL HAVE TO PLACE IT AMONG THE FOOD PRODUCTS"—PETER BISSETT, PLANT INTRODUCER, U. S. Dep't. of Agriculture.

THE LARGEST AVOCADO NURSERIES IN CALIFORNIA

Last year the parent tree at Sherman matured over 1000 fruit, notwithstanding the great amount of bud-wood taken from it to supply our four large nurseries, and others.

We sold the entire crop from our trees last season at 50 cents each. At that price they would net the grower $25,000 per acre. At 5 cents each they would net the grower $2,500 per acre.

Experiments show the fruit can be kept indefinitely in cold storage, thus allowing it to be placed on the market every month in the year. A process for canning has also been discovered.

Several four-year-old HARMAN buds bore from 140 to 190 fruit last season, while one two-year-old Harman bud matured 21 perfect fruit.

The Harman Avocado Evergreen tree makes the most wonderful growth, produces the largest crop, has the richest best shaped fruit and weighs 10 to 15 ounces.

The HARMAN Avocado blooms in April and matures its fruit in October, November and December, before danger of freezing and the right time of the year to sell well.

One or two Harman Avocados in your garden or yard will bring you a surprising income in a few years. Buy now. Special quotations on a large number of trees.

PARENT HARMAN TREE AND FRUIT, SHERMAN, CAL.

THE AVOCADO TODAY IS THE MOST IMPORTANT FOOD FRUIT IN THE WORLD.

The following analysis of the fruit is from the laboratory of the University of California at Berkeley.

	Per Cent
Water	71.58
Protein	2.80
Fat	19.33
Ash	1.29

Analysis by the United States Department of Agriculture showing relative nutritive value of foods, give the following for milk and eggs, respectively:

Milk (Cow)	Per Cent	Eggs (Whole)	Per Cent
Water	87.3	Water	73.7
Protein	3.0	Protein	14.8
Fats	4.0	Fats	10.5
Carbohydrates	5.0	Ash	1.0
Ash	.07

It will be seen by a comparison of the above that Avocados contain 9.28 per cent more fat than eggs, and on a food basis, pound for pound, the Avocado compares most favorably with eggs and milk, which are considered balanced rations.

On the above basis, authorities writing from Miami, Florida, to the New York Packer under date of September 25, 1914, say that Avocados at 25 cents per pound are cheaper food than eggs at the same price per dozen.

One authority says eggs, Avocados and milk are nature's most complete foods. Either, with air and water, furnishes the necessary elements to sustain life, energy and intellect, and the Avocado has the advantage of being the more easily digested of these three most important and complete foods.

An article appearing in the San Diego Union, July 19, 1914, quoting Parker Earle, an eminent horticulturist and former President of the American Pomological Society, on the food supply of the future, shows conclusively the great tonnage of food that can be produced per acre in the way of Avocados over meats or any other foods.

Avocado trees will thrive and do well in any well drained soil and under the same climatic conditions as citrus trees, and require about the same care.

O. J. GRAFTON, Orange County Agent.

106 East First St.

Santa Ana.

LUTHER BURBANK of Santa Rosa writes to a friend, under date of Feb. 20, 1915, which in part is as follows: "My Avocado collection consists of one grafted tree of each of the following: (He names 5 of the principal varieties, the Harman being one—the remaining 4 we distinguish by numbers 1, 2, 3 and 4, out of courtesy to the persons whose names they bear) These are about four feet in height and 2 blossomed last year, but did not set any fruit. Three looked very vigorous and hearty and I was surprised to find it was one of the first, with 1, to be severely frost-bitten. Two and 4 are not much injured. The Harman has for some reason stood the best of all of them. I also have a Chile seedling about 6 feet high, four years old, nicely branched, which has stood the frost splendidly, although most of the leaves were killed during the past winter. I also have several seedlings from fruit which I have bought in the market, and some from South America and Mexico. Some of these have stood the winter quite well. Seedlings from Guiana, Hawaiian Islands, Java and other tropical countries are ALL FROZEN

DEAD. What you say about the compact, vigorous growing tree, it seems to me, applies to the Avocado more than any other tree under cultivation. As to the value of the Avocado fruit: no one on earth can question that. It is the most nutritious, easily digestible and delicious of all fruits.

I remember well when I first began the nursery business, nearly forty years ago—though having French prune trees to sell in quantity, I warned many NOT TO OVERDO the matter by planting TOO MANY. Each year the demand became greater, and it has not at the present time, even, been really overdone BUT THE PRUNE IS ONLY A GRAIN OF DUST IN VALUE compared to the Avocado, which, if it can be purchased in quantity, will sooner or later be eaten by everybody, everywhere."

In an address at the recent convention of the California Association of Nurserymen at San Diego, Mr. Peter Bissett, Plant Introducer of the United States Department of Agriculture, said in part regarding the Avocado:

"It is a discussion that I have been very much interested in for some years, doing what I could to interest people to plant these trees both in California and Florida."

"It is not only a fruit—it is a food, and I think we will have to place it among the food products."

"As for the market, I might tell you of a visit I made to a commission dealer in San Francisco about one year ago. When I enter a city I like to go into the markets and see what fruits are on the stands. I dropped into a commission dealer's place of business and found a shipment of Avocados from the Island of Tahiti, just in that morning. There were 40 boxes, and each box contained four dozen fruits, which sold inside of two hours at from $3.00 to $5.00 per dozen, wholesale, and from the figures given to day in regard to the yield, you can readily see that there are going to be fortunes made in the cultivation of the Avocado. When I hear of a man selling his crop from one tree for something like $2000 I do not think that when you multiply that by 50 a man would be very foolish to try it; and I believe that for the next twenty years probably the Avocado will pay a very much larger profit than you are now receiving from your citrus crop, and to all living in a section where the Avocado can be grown, I would advise you to plant them."

Other testimonials of the frostless character of the HARMAN AVOCADO: Letter from C. W. Beers, Horticultural Commissioner of Santa Barbara County, dated September 29th, 1913, says: "The 'HARMAN' stood our coldest weather last winter and was one of the very few that did not frost back, and possibly it is the only one."

Letter from Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Hicks, Santa Anita, Cal., dated August 23rd, 1913 says their "HARMAN" Avocado tree, planted in spring of 1912, WENT THROUGH A TEMPERATURE OF 14 DEGREES ABOVE ZERO IN THE BIG FREEZE—citrus trees froze to the ground. Their tree dropped its leaves, but has come out beautifully and made a more thrifty growth than before the freeze.

Letter from W. W. Benedict, President Bangor Development Co. with nurseries in Butte County, dated August 20, 1913, says the "HARMAN" nursery trees WITHSTOOD THE FREEZE, WINTER 1912-13, OUT IN OPEN FIELD with no indication of being affected by cold.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Plant Industry—Exhibit Four, Bulletin No. 61. "The greatest need at present appears to be the propagation of productive varieties of Avocado of desirable size, form and quality, ripening at an opportune time—that is late in autumn or early in winter, when the demand in northern markets at high prices appears to be best. Latest ripening ones bring the best prices in American markets, $3 a dozen when shipped in lots of several crates at a time. As the dealers in Boston, New York, Washington and New Orleans have been able to handle all the good fruit that has been sent to them it is not probable that the Avocado will be introduced into other centers until these markets have been fully supplied. Mr. B. O. Clark of Hawaii has written the home market is not nearly supplied, and the prices are so high that none but the wealthy can use them, except as a luxury." Mr. O. F. Cook, Porto Rico, reports: "The promise of commercial importance for this fruit lies in the fact that it already has a distinct, if limited, place in the large markets of our larger cities at from 30 to 60 cents apiece. Moreover, even at these large prices, the supply of first-class fruit is unequal to the demand."

The fact that the Avocado can utilize almost any kind of organic fertilizer without becoming diseased makes it much more desirable than Mangoes or citrus trees. If budded trees of known variety can be obtained from a good nursery they will be found cheaper in the end, and much more satisfactory than to await the uncertain results and certain disappointment of a seedling orchard. Top working is expensive. If the trees be put into a dormant or semi-dormant condition during December and January (Harman trees take a rest during this period) they will make a strong spring growth and produce a heavy crop of bloom.

Seedling Avocados are usually six years old before bearing a crop. There are exceptions to this, but the number of seedlings that bear a good crop before they are six years old will not amount to 10 per cent. The unfruitfulness and the variability of the product is not more than should be expected from an orchard of seedlings. If a census of all the seedling orchards were taken it is not probable that the general results would be very different but this is just what should be expected in propagating from seed a species that is so variable as the Avocado."

Ernst Brauntun, fruit expert, Los Angeles Times:

"The Avocado is destined soon to become one of Southern California's staple orchard crops. There are two types—thick and thin-skinned. The latter, paradoxical as it may seem, is the harder of the two varieties. Buy none but budded trees. Do not let the price stagger you for the trees are worth all that is asked for them."

The following table is a very conservative estimate of what can be done by the orchardist. Many Harman trees have borne TWICE the number of fruits enumerated and the Harman fruit has never been sold for less than 50 cents each.

Age	Per Tree	Per Acre	Net Per Acre
2 yrs.	10	480	$ 240
3 yrs.	25	1200	600
4 yrs.	50	2400	1200
5 yrs.	150	7200	3600
6 yrs.	300	14,000	7200
7 yrs.	500	24,000	12,000

What a Few Trees Earned in 1914

The Smith tree, at 1308 N. Main St., Santa Ana, had $500 worth of fruit.

The Woodworth at Whittier sold fruit and budded wood for over $2,000 in 1914.

W. G. Davidson, Monrovia (Harman tree), netted about $1000 in fruit and budwood.

A tree at Hollywood, about $1,200.

The Parent Harman tree at Sherman, in fruit and budwood for four field nurseries, about $2,000.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE NOT DANGEROUS TO MAN

WASHINGTON, Mar. 31.—Consumers, even in states quarantined for foot-and-mouth disease, need have no fear of eating meat today, providing it is thoroughly cooked. This reassuring words is given in a bulletin just issued by the Department of Agriculture.

The foot-and-mouth disease not easily communicated to human beings through food, although milk from a diseased cow might transmit the disease to a human being. Pasteurization, however, renders milk safe. Human beings who do get the disease commonly get it from direct contact with the diseased animal. It is wisest, therefore, says the department, for people to keep away from all animals having the disease unless they are properly provided with rubber gloves, coats, and boots, and these are thoroughly disinfected after each visit to the animal.

In the case of meat, as in the case of milk, the department points out, all herds actually showing the disease are quarantined, and neither milk or meat from the sick animals can be sold. Sixty per cent of the meat used in this country is produced in the nearly 900 Federally inspected slaughtering and packing establishments located in 240 cities. In these establishments no animal is slaughtered until it has passed an ante-mortem inspection by a veterinarian at the time of slaughter. After slaughter meat cannot leave the establishment until it has been carefully examined and stamped "U. S. Inspected and Passed."

In all these establishments no animal showing any symptoms whatever of foot-and-mouth disease is allowed to go to slaughter, and no meat, which shows on post-mortem inspection, any suspicious symptoms of this complaint can be shipped out of the establishment. All meat suspected of coming from an infected animal is sent under government seal to the tanks to be rendered into fertilizer. The Federal inspection stamp on meat, therefore, means that it is entirely safe.

The Federal government, however, has no jurisdiction over local slaughter houses which do not ship meat outside the State in which it is slaughtered. If, however, meat from such an animal did escape from one of these local slaughter houses, which are purely under State or municipal control, all danger of its communicating the disease to human beings would be removed when it has been thoroughly cooked and sterilized. Those who are located near an infected region and wish to be absolutely certain of the safety of their meat should cook it thoroughly.

IN THE JUSTICE COURTS

PRIEST ALLEGES STOCK GOTTEN UNDER FALSE PRETENSES

On a charge of swindling Rev. Alfred Quetu of San Juan Capistrano, G. Gillette, a Los Angeles real estate man, was today in Justice Cox's court. He gave $10,000 bond for his appearance for a preliminary examination on the charge, a felony, on May 24.

Rev. Quetu, a Catholic priest, founder of the French Colony in the mission valley, swore to the complaint, and Gillette came down from Los Angeles with his attorneys, Veitch and Richardson. S. C. Graham, an oil producer, and F. L. Lower, a rancher, both of Los Angeles, came also, and went on his bond.

A CHILD'S LAXATIVE IS 'SYRUP OF FIGS'

Made From Fruit — Can't Harm Tender Stomach,
Liver and Bowels

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, gas, bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

KILLICK WILL SHOW HOW TO RESUSCITATE A DROWNING PERSON

On Saturday—Dollar Day—at 2:30 o'clock, Fred H. Killick is going to give an interesting exhibition at the Santa Ana Athletic Club pool. Killick, who for years was engaged as a life guard in Sutro Baths in San Francisco and Bimini Baths, Los Angeles, is a clear, forceful talker, and his demonstrations of life saving are such that any person can see just how to proceed to resuscitate a person taken from the water.

Resuscitation, the use of the life line, the nature of undertows and tides and how to overcome them, the grips of the drowning and how to throw them off—these are among the many subjects to be discussed and demonstrated.

Killick is in Santa Ana for the Los Angeles Times. He has given talks to the Santa Ana High School, to the Y. M. C. A. and to gatherings of boys and young men at the Santa Ana Athletic Club.

AGED WOMAN SEEKS BROTHER'S ADDRESS

County Auditor Jerome has received an inquiry from Justice of the Peace E. E. Porter, of Amherst, O., concerning the whereabouts of Christian Leibrandt. The letter says:

"An aged lady, resident of this city, is desirous of getting in communication with a brother, Christian Leibrandt."

"We have reasons to believe that he is or was a resident of your county and owned real estate therein."

"Will you please inform me if the name of Christian Leibrandt appears on your duplicate for the present year or did in the year 1895, and if so, in what township the property is located and the post office address thereof?"

County Auditor Jerome is searching the assessment rolls for the name.

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 31, 1915.

DOLLAR DAY MEANS PROSPERITY

SUPPORT FOR BIG PROJECT COMES FROM NEAR AND FAR

By Will C. Ullrich

SPRINGTIME! EASTER! That time of the year when all Nature is decked in its most beautiful! When the very air calls to the sluggish to wake, to the enterprising to put forth fresher and better efforts! When all is hope and confidence!

What a time to launch new movements, new ideas, betterments! It was a happy circumstance that led to the inauguration of Dollar Day for Santa Ana at just the season of the year when every outward and visible manifestation of springtime gives glowing promise of bumper crops, of unusual prosperity.

A Get-Together Move

It was no sordid, mercenary motive that prompted the launching of Dollar Day. Consideration of indirect profits in measures of dollars and cents there was, of course, but not as the basic idea of the day.

Say, rather, it was an effort on the part of business men and citizens generally of Santa Ana for a day when the whole county might become better acquainted—a gigantic "get-together" movement with the improvement and boosting of every part of the county at heart, not merely the advertising of Santa Ana.

Again a happy circumstance—that business men and citizens of other Orange County cities and towns saw the real spirit that lay behind the

SOME HIGH LIGHTS ON SANTA ANA DOLLAR DAY

Santa Ana Dollar Day is Saturday, April 3.

Its purpose is to bring people to Santa Ana from every section of Orange County.

It is a great get-together, get-acquainted campaign.

On Dollar Day every Santa Ana merchant will offer one or more $1.00 bargains.

Dollar Day bargains are today advertised in The Register's Special Dollar Day edition.

A great Orange County automobile parade by Santa Ana merchants was held today, as a part of the gigantic campaign to let every one know about Dollar Day.

Five thousand extra copies of the Register have been printed, in three sections of eight pages each, making this Dollar Day edition the greatest edition ever gotten out in Orange County.

More than $100 worth of prizes will be given Dollar Day visitors to Santa Ana.

move. Business rivalry, competition—these feelings passed, to merge in a general desire to get behind the Dollar Day idea and BOOST.

Whole County Enthuses

The instant and glad response accorded Dollar Day on every hand is only another example of the loyalty of Orange County people as a whole to whatever may promise for the welfare of the county or any part of the county. Praise in unstinted measure comes from the business men of other towns in this county at the evidence of progress and enterprise shown by Santa Ana in its Dollar Day campaign.

Dollar Day need not be considered as a move only for Santa Ana's benefit. The spirit it has awakened will spread to other towns, to add fresh impetus to the already live civic pride which is so marked a feature of Orange County community and business life.

Other towns may profit by the move.

Other towns may launch Dollar Days of their own, or movements along the same line. They will find the encouragement they have extended Santa Ana will be returned with interest.

What Is Dollar Day?

Just what is Dollar Day? Just why is Dollar Day?

Advertising?

Yes.

Advertising of the broader sort.

The kind of advertising that makes one glad he lives in a community where it prevails.

Advertising that will tend to bring customer and merchant into closer personal touch.

Advertising that will teach that home merchants are the merchants it pays to patronize.

Advertising that will teach that it is the home stores where a dollar spent brings the spender a dollar's worth of value.

Advertising that is a testimonial to the live, progressive spirit of the community that can get together and make the success that Santa Ana has already assured for Dollar Day.

The Religion of Business

Some people may not realize it, but there is such a thing as "The Religion of Business."

The leading editorial in Hearst's Magazine for March, by Elbert Hubbard, bears that title. It is a remarkable editorial, and were it not copyrighted we would print it in full.

It is an editorial emphasizing the fact that business is the science of human service, and that the raw stock of business is friendship.

"Business builds, constructs, develops, creates. Business means good roads, electric signs, cluster lights, schools, playgrounds, parks, gymnasiums, trees, bowers, gardens, homes, beautiful back yards, good plumbing, fresh air, pure water, electric fans, sure and quick transportation, courteous telephone service, hygiene, and sanitation in a thousand forms."

More especially for Santa Ana, business means a new hotel, a Y. M. C. A. building, and all the other things good and needful on which our hearts and minds are fixed.

Dollar Day will do its part in making business, which, in turn, will help in bringing about these things.

The Golden Rule

Men sometimes say, "I'm not in business for my health," meaning, of course, that they are in business to make money. But the man who is not in business for his health—that is, for his general well-being and that of his neighbor's—will soon not be in business for anything.

"The Golden Rule"—again to quote the Elbert Hubbard editorial—"is today playing a big part in commerce. We are doing unto others as we would be done by for the best possible reason—because it pays."

Acting merely as the mouthpiece of Santa Ana business men as a whole, The Register extends to every man, woman and child in Orange County a cordial and pressing invitation to come to Santa Ana on Dollar Day, Saturday, April 3.

Meet the Merchants

Meet the Santa Ana merchants. Meet them personally. Learn to know the man who stands behind the goods he sells.

On Dollar Day, at any rate, come to Santa Ana and forget to look upon the merchant merely as the man who has something to sell and wants you to buy.

Meet him as the man "behind the gun." The man who pays taxes and helps maintain, not merely this city but the whole county. The man always ready to aid in everything that promises betterment of conditions in Santa Ana and Orange County whether these conditions be moral, financial, educational or physical.

Make it a sort of a picnic—a "get-acquainted, get-together" occasion.

Prizes to Be Given

A hundred or more prizes are to be given away on Dollar Day by Santa Ana merchants.

Advertising?

Again, yes.

But more than advertising. The prizes are given to bring you into closer personal touch with the business men. The value of any particular prize may not be so great, intrinsically. It is the spirit in which these prizes are given that will make them valuable.

Consider them as a souvenir of a Dollar Day well spent. As a memento of a personal visit to the store of some merchant whom, perhaps, you never met before.

How to Get Prizes

Look in the upper right-hand corner of Page One, Section Two, of the copy of the Register you receive today.

There you will find a number stamped.

Save your paper. On Dollar Day, Saturday, April 3, bring the paper with you when you come to town.

Scan the shop windows. You will find cards on display in practically every show window of every business house in Santa Ana.

Each of these cards will bear a number.

If the number on any card corresponds to the one stamped on your copy of the Register, go in. The souvenir offering of that store is yours, free of charge, with the compliments of the house.

It is yours without obligation to spend a penny.

It's Practically Unanimous. Almost every business man in Santa Ana is participating in Dollar Day.

SPRING

The Awakening of New Hope, New Ambition New Power

CHEER up! Old Man Winter's last fortress has been battered down. Spring with its armies of birds and flowers close at its back, has entered greater Santa Ana and every inhalation is fresh with vigor.

SPRING is here—in the air, on the streets, in the shop windows—everywhere. You can read it in men's faces. This is the season of re-awakening, of re-juvenation. It is renaissance of life itself.

THIS is the season when men become better citizens. Hope, the seed from which the flower of success springs, is, or should be, planted in your soil.

BUSINESS is like a garden. Greater Santa Ana is your field. Advertising is your seed, success, your fruit.

IT has taken some of us six months to find out that there is nothing wrong with this country. The men who knew it all the time, and acted on this knowledge are already reaping a harvest.

LOOK about you, all ye of little faith! Look into the shop windows of greater Santa Ana. Whatever you want is here. Whatever is useful or ornamental, or entertaining, or instructive, the four contributing factors of civilization, you can find here.

MAKE the pages of the Santa Ana Daily Register your guide to things good and beautiful. The experience, and care and knowledge of experts have been put into them. And they are backed by service.

SPRING is the season of opportunity. It is the time to do your greatest planting. Do it in good soil, in greater Santa Ana.

'DOLLAR DAY' IS BOUND TO BE A BIG SUCCESS

Nearly all of them are giving prizes. Some of them are giving two, three and four prizes.

So, do not think YOUR paper does not carry a winning number until you have looked at the Dollar Day card in every window in Santa Ana.

You may find YOUR number on the first card you see; it may be found in the very last window you visit.

The winning numbers have been distributed throughout the entire edition of the Register, so that one or more of them will be found in each 100 numbers, beginning with 1000 and running up to nearly 9000. Thus the prize winners cannot possibly be bunched in any particular section of the county.

Visit the Register

As a closing word, The Register on its own part, extends to you individually and collectively, an invitation to visit the Register office on Dollar Day—and on every other business day in the year.

See the best equipped newspaper plant in any city of the size of Santa Ana in the world.

See how your favorite paper is made.

Read the Advertisements

And don't fail to read the advertisements carefully. In every one of them you will find big bargains offered. In a hurried glance over the pages you may miss the very thing in which you would be most interested, and by which you would be most profited.

EXTRA VALUES IN MEN'S STYLISH SPRING SUITS

This spring, the designers of The House of Kuppenheimer seem to have gone direct to Armageddon for their inspiration.

For in the new styles—the short, high waist line, the narrow sleeves and shoulders, the figure shaping effect—there is indisputable evidence of the war zone influence.

Even the weaver, as he guided the nimble shuttle, must have let his thoughts drift battlewards, for one may see in the color blendings of the new fabrics faint suggestions of the Teuton greenish gray, the French gray blue, the Russian drab and the British khaki—

And, behold, all of these dwelling side by side on our neutral racks in harmony and brotherly love.

Let a young man invade this citadel of bigger values and view this spring array of styles, and we know he will capitulate on the spot.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

FREAK EGGS ON EXHIBITION AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 30.—A number of interesting eggs have recently been placed on display in this city, but perhaps the most unique of all was the double shelled egg brought in by Tedd Tarbox this week. It consists of a hard shelled egg of ordinary size enclosed in an outer soft shell. Mrs. Peter Ringville has also brought in a freak egg, unusual especially in its length, although it is large in circumference the other day. The short circumference measures six inches while the long way it is eight and a quarter inches around. In length this exceeds any of the interesting specimens that have been brought in.

Mrs. Ilah Hulett, who recently came to this city from Long Beach, has purchased from David Klein a half interest in the Sample store located in the Collins block. Mrs. Hulett will look after the millinery and women's goods department while her son will handle the men's department. Mr. Klein expects to look after the buying for this and other stores.

The high school and most of the grammar schools in this vicinity hold their vacations this week. The Huntington Beach and Fountain Valley grammar schools will have their vacation a week later.

See Grammar School

A large number of high school students and several teachers from this city attended the dedicatory exercises of the new Westminster grammar school Friday afternoon. The first part of the exercises consisting of a flag raising ceremony was held in the open air with Dean Johnson, president of the board of trustees in charge. The flag given by the architect, J. Flood Walker, was raised and a brief speech was made by the donor. Following this part of the program an elaborate program was given by the pupils of the school. A number of difficult musical numbers including a vocal duet by two of the boys were given. There was also a declamation contest for the honor of representing the school at the Grammar School Day exercises at the high school in April 30. The contestants in the contest were Mr. Parr, Misses Wright, Murdy and Linn. The closing number on the program was a debate.

The school building is commodious and well arranged. The auditorium and class rooms are upstairs. On the lower floor, which is on the ground level, there are manual training and sewing rooms, also cooking room and playrooms for boys and girls separately. Further ceremonies are planned for next Friday evening.

Jesse R. Crandall, assistant cashier of the young ladies' class of the Methodist Sunday school, took his class, about twenty in number, to view the Mission play at San Gabriel Saturday evening. After the performance a mid-night luncheon was enjoyed.

A Y. M. C. A. class has been organized with a membership of nine. The limit of membership has been fixed at fourteen. No more members will be admitted after that number is reached, though it is possible that a new class might be started. The class meets Monday evenings with H. T. Sundbye as leader.

In response to oft-repeated requests and threatened appeal to the public utilities commission the Pacific Light and Power Company has extended its line to accommodate a large number of houses on or in the vicinity of Seventeenth street.

The Huntington Beach Water Company reports an unusual demand for new water connections for this time of the year, indicating a greater building activity than usual during the spring and summer months.

Word has been received here of the death on Thursday of Miss Margaretta Elizabeth Fry, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Fry of Pasadena. The family had resided in Huntington Beach until about a year ago.

Team Captain

Ward B. Blodgett, a graduate of the local high school and son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Blodgett of this city, has been honored by election as captain of the basketball team of Stanford University. Blodgett is one of the fastest forwards that has played on the Stanford quintet. He was captain of the soccer team at Stanford last year.

Owing to the high grade of ability shown in the class declamation contests at the high school it has been decided to hold a public contest between the classes on Saturday evening, April 10 to decide the class championship. The senior contestant is Miss Florence Grant. Miss Hazel Knight will represent the Juniors. Robert Winn and Cecil McCoy respectively will represent the Sophomore and Freshman classes.

Active work has begun on the big street contract awarded recently to the Johnson-O'Shea Company of Riverside. S. E. Talbert and Bert Noble, the latter the lowest bidder, but unsuccessful because his check was a few dollars too small, are doing the work. Talbert's big caterpillar engine being used in connection with plows and attached elevator which carries the dirt to wagons which are driven alongside. Rapid progress has been made on Eleventh street from the great part of the superfluous dirt has been removed. A few days will prepare the street to receive the base of crushed rock and cement.

The Tent City streets will be oiled this year, thus doing away with the dust. This does not mean the streets between the tents, but the main thoroughfares through the grounds.

The grammar school enrollment has now reached 417, of whom 202 are boys and 215 are girls. One room has an enrollment of 73 and two of 63.

The Troy laundry will open in about two weeks under a new management.

LET THEM FIGHT IT TO A FINISH, SAYS NOTED AUTHOR

SAN DIEGO, Mar. 31.—"War is the most hideous thing in the world, the most horrible thing I've ever seen or expect to see, but brutal as it may seem, this war in Europe should be fought out for the good of all."

So declared Irvin S. Cobb today. Cobb blamed the almighty dollar for the war and said:

"Since Cain killed Abel, the slaughter of men has been based on trade. This European war is a war for commercial supremacy and expansion. 'When people get trade-jealous, militarism predominates.'"

"Let some one or other get the daylight kicked out of them. The sooner the world is disgusted with militarism, the sooner universal peace will result."

Dollar Day April 3—
ENGAGED, MARRIED, JAILED, ALL IN HOUR

CLEVELAND—Engaged, married, sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary and paroled, all within an hour was the record made by Mrs. Emma Guenther Rossmach.

Mrs. Rossmach, who was Miss Emma Guenther prior to her marriage to Walter Rossmach at Trinity Cathedral, had been indicted for grand larceny. She had confessed to the theft of a $550 diamond, a pearl necklace and a diamond ring from Mrs. G. B. Durell, Euclid avenue, at whose home she was employed.

The hurried ceremony took place at the cathedral half an hour before Mrs. Rossmach's appearance. In Judge Leighey's court with her newly wed husband, a sailor, Mrs. Rossmach did not know until the judge announced her parole whether her wedding day was to be one of happiness or tragedy.

GIRL THIEF INVOLVES MAN 80 YEARS OLD

SIDNEY—Nellie Huston, 15, who, with two companions, confessed to having committed many depredations, including several robberies, was committed to the industrial school at Delaware.

In her confession the girl implicated Henry Crusey, 80, a prominent citizen. Crusey is held under $1000 bond on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of the girl.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Mar. 31.—Little Mary Weiland didn't like to go to school so she cut off her curls with a rusty pair of shears knowing that mama would not send her to school until the hair grew out again. When questioned she accused Eddie Smith, a school-mate, with the deed. It took a trial in the juvenile court to get at the facts.

Dollar Day April 3—
WOMAN AND CHILD ARE SAVED FROM BAD FIRE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—A woman and her child were rescued, several valuable automobiles destroyed, two buildings gutted and several other houses occupied by persons prominent in society were damaged when fire started in the garage of Joseph G. Darlington & Company, at 2030 and 2032 Rittenhouse street.

Before the firemen arrived the flames had spread to an adjoining garage, where several hundred gallons of gasoline and oils were stored. Fed by inflammable material, the flames spread quickly, destroying everything in their path.

Dollar Day April 3—
CANCER TOXIN CLAIMED BY BOSTON SCIENTIST

BOSTON.—Dr. Herbert W. Nowell, professor of pathology in the Boston University School of Medicine, has discovered a substance which he says positively will cure cancer, provided the treatment be given in time. This remedy is a toxin extracted from cancer, its action upon cancer corresponding to the action of smallpox vaccine upon that disease.

Dollar Day April 3—
HARI-KARI BILL IS VOTED DOWN IN MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn., Mar. 31.—The Minnesota legislature, which ended its third month, today, among other things, voted against committing hari kari. A bill was proposed cutting down the number of legislators to 100, and making them all in one house. The legislature killed it by a tremendous majority.

Although the legislature refused to give the people of Minnesota the right to vote on suffrage, they gave them a county option bill. A bill to provide for statewide prohibition failed by a big majority. The legislature was the first non-partisan legislature in Minnesota, it being against the law for any member of it to announce his political faith, either before or after election.

Gov. Arthur Capper of Kansas, Denounces Slander of His State by Liquor Interests!

Presents Facts and Asks the American People to Judge Kansas Prohibition in the Light of Truth

The National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association is circulating much literature throughout the country, which is so distinctly misleading and harmful that prompt and forceful repudiation of its contents is imperative.

The liquor interests do not fight fairly; they resort to falsehood and innuendo and subterfuge. What else is left to them? Can they defend the gambling, the resorts they own and use to retail their poison? There is one thing, and one alone, that the liquor interests can do, and that is to wade into the statistical masses of the census, trusting to the confusing power of twisted figures to make black appear white in the eyes of the average man.

The liquor interests have declared, in effect, that the Legislature of Kansas has lied; that more than 700 editors of Kansas have lied; that every political party of Kansas has lied; that every minister and school teacher of Kansas has lied; that the president of the Kansas State Retailers' Association has lied; that the president of the State Bankers' Association and 166 bankers of Kansas have lied; that the president of the State Medical Society has lied; that the president of the Commercial Clubs of Kansas has lied; that the governor of the state of Kansas has lied; that 457,000 people who piled a majority on the wet candidate, Mr. Billard, in the last election, and thereby endorsed Prohibition, have lied;

Cabell's "Facts About Kansas" Just at present the Wholesale Liquor Dealers are circulating an article by Royal E. Cabell on "Facts About Prohibition in Kansas." Mr. Cabell says that Kansas' death rate figures are unreliable, for "Kansas is not in the registration area." So he takes the death rate of Kansas cities and compares them with the state death rate of license states, and makes no explanation that the rate in the latter case is dragged down by rural statistics. Since Mr. Cabell first wrote his article, Kansas has been admitted to the registration area, but the liquor people are still industriously circulating the statement—"Kansas figures are not accepted by the United States Government."

Cabell infers that Kansas has a rate of death by violence, excluding suicide, of 123. In 1912, according to Dr. J. S. Crumrine, secretary of the Board of Health, the rate of violent deaths in Kansas was 60.8, including both accidents and homicides. Mr. Cabell has taken the figures for leading cities and compared them with the figures covering both cities and rural districts in license states. He infers that the rate of suicide in Kansas is 22 to the 100,000. According to the figures of Dr. Crumrine, the rate of suicide in Kansas in 1912 was 12.2.

If, in this literature, issued by the liquor men, they want to set forth facts on which intelligent opinion may be formed, why does it not say in this connection that the death rate in Kansas in connection with all of these causes of death in which alcohol prominently figures is, in nearly every case, below that of nearby states and is in every single case below that of the registration area? Why, for instance, would it not illuminate the problem to say that while the death rate in the registration area from cirrhosis of the liver was 14, in Kansas in 1912 it was only 7? Why not say that while the death rate from violent deaths in the registration area was 91.2, in Kansas it was 69.8? It might even be well to bring out the fact that while the death rate from homicide in the registration area was 6.6, the homicide rate in Kansas in 1912 was 4.8. It undoubtedly would be instructive to say that the death rate in the registration area from suicide was 16.2, and in Kansas in 1912 was 12.2. The death rate from Bright's disease in the registration area was 87.5, and in Kansas only 55.4; for pneumonia in the registration area 89.2, and in Kansas in 1912 it was 45.6.

Mr. Cabell does not say these things. They contain "the whole truth," and the whole truth would be fatal to Mr. Cabell's cause.

Divorce

Mr. Cabell figures that Kansas has a divorce rate of 286, but that latest available reports from the United States government do not agree with him. For the five years, 1898 to 1902 inclusive, the rate of divorce in Kansas, according to the United States government, was 169 (not 286). Divorce statistics are so chaotic and are affected by such varying conditions that it is not possible to make a reasonable comparison, but when Mr. Cabell makes an error of 177 to the 100,000, considerably more than doubling the Kansas rate for purposes of his propaganda, when he carefully refrains from saying that the divorce rate in the prohibition state of North Dakota is only 88; that in Arizona (then license) it was 120; in Arkansas (then license) 136; in Colorado, (then license) 158; in Idaho (then license) 120; in Indiana 142; in Montana 167; in Oregon (then license) 134; in Oklahoma (then license) 129; in Wyoming 118; in Texas 131; in Washington (then license) 184—when he ignores these significant facts and continues his false figures, there is no reason why he should receive consideration.

Mr. Cabell says that 15 license states have a rate of divorce to wives because of husbands' drunkenness lower than the rate in Kansas. But he carefully kicks sand over the important fact that drunkenness is not a cause for divorce in Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and Texas. Even then, what is the sense in saying that 15 license states have a lower rate of divorce for drunkenness than Kansas? It simply makes obvious the fact that 32 states have a higher rate.

In regard to this divorce question, something further should be said. Divorce is not common among foreign-born citizens or among the population of our great industrial centers. Some women accept their daily beating uncomplainingly. In states where the population is largely native American, where women demand consideration on the part of their husbands, a rough tongue-lashing is very apt to result in a divorce.

Prisons

It is stated in this literature that Kansas has a higher life prisoner rate than 21 other states. But it omits the important fact that there is no capital punishment in Kansas. Kansas imprisons its murderers for life; Illinois punishes them with death. The thing is so obvious as to be ridiculous.

We suggest to Mr. Cabell and his employers that they present to the people of the United States these facts:

The prison rate in 1910 for the entire United States was 121.4; in Kansas it was 91.1; in North Dakota, another prohibition state, it was 63. In the same year the rate of commitments to prison in the United States was 520, and in Kansas it was only 200, while the average rate of the license states in the West North Central Division, in which Kansas is located, and in all the states of that division, brings out the truth in startling fashion:

United States	520
Minnesota	499
Missouri	481
South Dakota	273
Kansas	200
West North Central (average of license states)	465
Iowa (then license)	585
North Dakota	163
Nebraska	148
Colorado (then license)	610

delinquency Mr. Campbell says that 19 states had a lower rate than had Kansas. The fact is that some of these states had no juvenile delinquents at all, because they had no such system. Consequently, they show up much better than Kansas.

It also affects the situation that some states that have juvenile delinquency systems have them in an undeveloped state; some states have an extensive parole system; some states spank the children for offenses that put them in charge in other states. Why should not Mr. Cabell say that North Dakota, a prohibition state, has the lowest juvenile delinquency rate in the West Central Division of states? Why should he not say, for instance, that Nebraska, which he compares with Kansas, has a percentage of discharge and parole of 51 as compared with a percentage of 39 in Kansas? These are some of the things that it is necessary for Mr. Cabell and the Wholesale Liquor Dealers to avoid as carefully as a British grain ship avoids the glint of a periscope.

Pauperism
We are told that 14 states had a lower pauper rate than Kansas. The sentence is not complete or it would read, "and 32 have a higher pauper rate than Kansas." Mr. Cabell says that Nebraska has only a slightly higher rate of pauperism than Kansas, but he does not bring out the fact that Nebraska had poorhouses in only 51 out of 92 counties and that Kansas had poorhouses in 74 out of 105 counties.

A comparative study of the question of pauperism furnishes one of the most amazing arguments for prohibition. For instance, if we take all the prohibition states and all the license states (and they are both so well scattered as to make a comparison fair, we find that on the basis of the census of 1910 the paupers in the United States would number:

At rate for the continental United States, 88,319.

If the rate in the license states prevailed throughout the country, 108,808.

If the rate in the prohibition states prevailed throughout the country, 27,300.

If the Kansas rate had prevailed throughout the country, 22,819.

The United States as a whole, according to the figures of the census of 1910, had a poorhouse commitment rate of 96.3. The license states of the Union had a rate of 110, and the prohibition states a rate of 29.8. If Mr. Cabell can make anything out of this, let him go to it.

Liquor Consumption in Kansas
Mr. Cabell says he has been unable to locate any reliable figures in regard to liquor consumption in Kansas. Indeed, he is habitually unable to arrive at the truth and locate any figures that are complete and correct. With great pleasure we furnish him with the following liquor consumption statistics, the estimates being made from reports made to county clerks under the Mahan law:

Kansas population 1,690,949
Liquor consumption, gals. 6,239,601.84
Paid for liquors $ 5,303,566.04
Paid per capita 3.04
Per capita cost in nation as a whole 21.00

At rate of $21 per capita Kansas would pay 34,509,929.00
Savings due to prohibition 29,266,268.00

We are also very eager to furnish the following figures for Mr. Cabell's discussion. They were secured direct from state officials by the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and show the discrepancy between the federal licenses and state licenses (or totals of local licenses). As is well known, this difference between federal and state licenses is practically a census of "blind pigs" in any state. The figures follow:

	No. Lic.	No. Exe. Lic.	Fed. Lic.
Michigan	3983	7799	3956
Florida	354	1267	913
New Hampshire	606	855	913
Rhode Island	397	1552	1100
Washington	2340	3169	829

What the Witnesses Say
Let us call the witnesses and see what they think of prohibition in Kansas. If anyone should know, they should know, for they live with it and under it.

The Governor of Kansas says prohibition is a great success.

Every state official who has spoken out says prohibition succeeds.

More than 700 editors and newspaper men in Kansas, in state convention, unanimously endorsed prohibition.

Every political party in Kansas favors the prohibition law.

No minister has ever opened his mouth in favor of return to license; neither has any school teacher.

The president of Kansas Retailers says prohibition pays.

The president of the State Bankers' Association believes that prohibition is a tremendous asset to Kansas.

One hundred and sixty-six bankers have given their testimony in favor of the law with the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and only six could be found in all the state who doubted the wisdom of this legislation.

The president of the Kansas Medical Society believes in prohibition. The president of the Commercial Clubs of Kansas has said that prohibition has added real value to every acre of Kansas land.

The Supreme Court has testified in the following strong language to the benefits of the prohibition law:

"The prohibitory law is well enforced throughout the state. It is as generally well enforced as any other criminal law. The enforcement of the law distinctly promotes social welfare and reduces to a minimum economic waste consequent upon the liquor traffic and allied evils. The saloon-keeper and his comrades have been excluded from effective participation in the politics of the state."

And to completely settle the question for all time the legislature of Kansas, not by majority but unanimously, passed the following concurrent resolution at the last session:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 33, by Senator Kinkel—Concerning the welfare of Kansas under prohibition.

Whereas, the liquor interests throughout the country, and those allied with them in their nefarious business, are publishing abroad in form of paid advertisements in the newspapers, certain false and defamatory statements to the effect that prohibition in Kansas has caused increase in crime, death rate, homicide, suicides and divorces among juveniles, and that the saloon trust is making use of juggled statistics, falsehoods, manufactured by criminal interests, allied to the alcohol venders and derogatory statements made by a few unreliable and irresponsible citizens of Kansas, all with the intention of creating prejudice in the minds of the legislators of other states, and thus influencing proposed anti-liquor legislation; and

Whereas, there is a lobby, the members of which profess to be Kansas men, operating in the legislature of the state of Utah, and alleging that evil follows in the train of prohibition, and that the enforcement of the prohibitory law in Kansas has resulted in multiplying crime, and deteriorating all the mental and moral faculties of the people of Kansas; therefore, be it Resolved, That the reverse of these statements is true; that the state of Kansas is cleaner, better, more advanced in mental culture, and stronger in moral fiber and conviction; that her homes are happier and more comfortable, her children better educated than ever before in her history; that crime is less prevalent and poverty less general; and that all this is due largely to the fact that the saloon is such an outlaw that none of her school children has even seen a saloon, and are unacquainted with the appearance of a saloon-keeper; and be it further

Resolved, That we, as representatives of the people of Kansas, hereby declare our allegiance to the cause of temperance, sobriety and right living, as exemplified by the ultimate result of constitutional prohibition, and its enforcement in our midst, and that we are opposed to any return of the domination of intoxicating liquors, and that no proposition looking toward a resubmission of the prohibitory amendment, and that no law which has for its object the re-establishment of places for the sale of liquor anywhere in Kansas will be given serious consideration, either by the legislature or by any of its committees.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the journals of the house and senate, and that the chief clerk of the house, and the secretary of the senate are directed to send certified copies of this resolution to all states of the Union which now have legislatures convened and in session for the enactment of laws.

The figures used in this statement are correct and authoritative. We have avoided nothing, evaded nothing, misconstrued nothing, covered nothing up. Anything further that might be said would simply add to the mass. Let the American people hear the truth and judge.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound Quickly Masters It.

CROUP SCARES YOU. That loud, hoarse croupy cough, that choking and gasping for breath, that labored breathing, have only too often foretold fatal results. Lucky the parents who have FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND in the house, for you can be sure that the very first doses will master the croup.

"I'll get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and stop being scared of croup."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND enters the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm. It opens up and eases the air passages, stops the strangling cough, and gives quiet easy breathing, and peaceful sleep.

No wonder a man in Texas walked 25 miles to a drug store to get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND.

P. H. GINN, Middleston, Ga., says: "I always give my children FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and all grippe coughs, and other throat and lung trouble. It satisfies every user, it helps infants, children and grown persons, and it never disappoints. In 25c, 50c, $1.00 sizes."

WAR'S GRIM HORRORS VIVIDLY WORD-PICTURED BY AMERICAN SOLDIER

[NOTE—Following is one of a series of articles by Phil Rader, a former United Press correspondent, who, since the outbreak of the war, has been serving with the world famous foreign legion of the French army. His regiment of 1500 men having been reduced to 385 after four and a half months in the trenches, a change in assignment entailing a furlough in London made possible preparation of these articles, the first from a trained American newspaperman actually engaged in the fighting. Rader, a son of the Reverend William Rader, for years pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church of San Francisco, has drawn a vivid detailed picture of the war of 1915 that strips the grim profession of its last vestige of romance and reveals its ghastly horrors in a manner so striking as to cause the narratives to stand out as one of the really great journalistic accomplishments of the war.]

BY PHIL RADER

[Written for the United Press. Copyright 1915 by United Press.]

LONDON, March 6.—What Christy Mathewson could do to the Germans near our trenches!

Phil Rader

The Germans are masters of new tricks, or of adapting old tricks to new purposes, but their hand grenade stunt would put them at the mercy of the great American ball players.

The hand grenade is about the size of a baseball and it weighs only a few ounces more. It has four little buttons in it which must strike with a blow of four or five pounds in order to cause an explosion, so a man can handle one in his hands with perfect safety.

I used to watch the Germans toss these bombs like school girls or like boys pitching nickels at a crack and all us Americans used to watch the inefficiency of the bomb in such untrained hands. We were considered the best bomb throwers of all, because we pitched them with force. A man with the aim of a trained pitcher could have worked havoc with them.

We could have kept battering away at a trench—and the German was only forty-five feet from ours—until we had worn out the trench with repeated explosions.

Eugene Jacobs, the man who left his butcher shop in Pawtucket to come and fight the Germans because they had destroyed his birthplace in Belgium, saved his life and perhaps several other lives one day by catching one of these bombs as if it were a baseball. We threw it back and it exploded in the German trench.

There was a huge Swede in my section who swung the butt end of his rifle at one of these bombs one day and hit it. There was a terrific explosion and he was found, brained. Why he did such a foolish thing I don't know. A man's nerves play him strange tricks in the trenches, and you find yourself tempted to do dangerous things, just as some persons find themselves wanting to jump from high places. I suppose the Swede had been tempted time and again to stop one of the bombs with his rifle and one day the temptation became too strong.

The Germans had another trick that reminded me of the American game of football. Now and then a few of them would clamber out of the trenches, under a terrific fire, to cut the barb wire entanglements. They wore armor over their bodies and heads. They were gawky looking players. We never killed any of these armored men, but we usually dropped them by hitting them in the legs. It seemed that their shin-guards were not as protective as the rest of their odd suits.

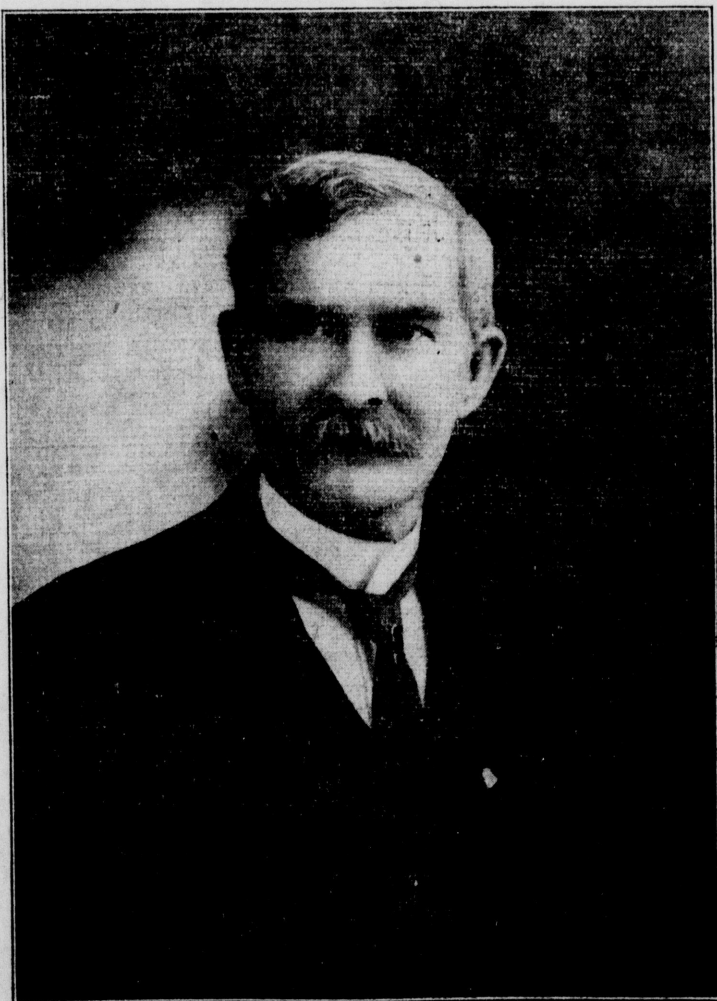

Another new invention, used by the Germans, was a swivel, fixed in cement on which the Germans swung their rifles. Each man would fix his aim at a certain very small section of our trenches and, when ordered to shoot, he could reach up and pull his trigger without raising his head. It was merely artillery practice applied to rifles and it had a deadly effect.

The white night lights which were shot into the air and then hovered over the trenches, suspended from small parachutes, were introduced by the Germans, but it wasn't long before we had them, too.

It was in the artillery line that the French developed new ideas. The German gun kicks with each charge. It rears back on its wheels, slews around and must usually be re-aimed. But the wonderful French gun, known as the "soixante quinze," fires twenty 29 shells a minute. The recoil is caught in cylinders filled with glycerine. The gun loads itself automatically and it never loses its aim. And, on our part of the line, all the new inventions which the Germans could develop,

FOR CITY CLERK

CHAS. S. SHAW

To the voters of Santa Ana—In deciding for whom you will vote for the important office of City Clerk at the coming election, I would respectfully call your attention to the qualifications which I possess, and which I will be only too glad to give the city the advantage of, should a majority of the electors cast their ballots for me.

I have had some eight months experience as City Clerk, and made good in the job. Was on the Bureau of Statistics of Labor for New York, during four years, a position of great trust and responsibility, and was secretary of the Board three years.

If elected to the position I am seeking, I will give the city the best in me, and will endeavor to be a courteous, conscientious servant of the people who have given me place and office.

Your trust in me will not be misplaced or abused.

Yours very truly,

CHAS. S. SHAW.

Candidate for the Office of City Clerk.

could not overcome the great advantage which the French hold on account of the "soixante quinze" guns. In its way, this gun is as marvelous as the great guns of the Germans.

The "beet coat" as we called it, was one of the cleverest German inventions that we saw in our part of the line. All of the country around us in which our trenches were dug, was sugar beet farm land and the landscape was a vista of beet leaves.

One day we saw a mound of beet leaves.

"It's only a mole digging," said our lieutenant.

But suddenly the whole pile moved and hunched forward. We began to shoot and, to our amazement, the beet leaves rose on two strong German legs and dashed back to the trenches. We laughed uproariously. The German reminded us Americans of Montgomery and Store in their queer disguises.

We found out later that the Germans would take a gunnysack, cut head and arm holes in it, pin beet leaves to it and then wear the sack like a coat. If a man moved carefully on his stomach, the chances of his being seen were very small. I was detailed with two other men to burn a straw stack in which the Germans had hidden machine guns. We spent the day in making "beet coats" and at nine o'clock in the evening donned them and started out on our hundred-yard crawl through the beet field. We got to the stack, fixed the fuse, lit the fuse with a match held under a coat, crawled back to the trench, and five minutes later the stack was ablaze.

The stack had been hollowed out and the Germans had placed four machine guns in it. We saw the wrecks of these guns the next day and later my two comrades and myself were "mentioned in dispatches" for firing the stack. Without our "beet coats" we could not have succeeded, for several times the white lights filled the air while we stretched ourselves on our stomachs among the beets. "Beating it with beets" was the name we gave to this stunt of wearing "beet coats."

CITY OF DETROIT MAY BUY OUT RAILROADS

DETROIT, Mich., Mar. 31.—Stockholders of the Detroit United Railway Company met today in special session to vote on the proposition of selling out to the city of Detroit for $24,900,000—the amount of the bonded indebtedness of the company. The sale price has been agreed to both by the directors of the D. U. R. and the members of the Detroit street railway commission, and must now be ratified by the D. U. R. stockholders and the voters of the city of Detroit.

Consideration of the sale price today by the street car company stockholders marks one of the final steps in Detroit's long fight for municipal ownership of the street car system.

Approval of the sale figures by the stockholders would result in the calling of a special election immediately to obtain ratification from the people.

WHOLE COUNTRY PAYS HOMAGE TO OUR OLIVE THIS DAY

GOVERNOR JOHNSON, proclaiming March 31 California Ripe Olive Day, said of the observance:

"California is the premier land of the world in the growth of the olive. It is the home of the ripe olive, the one spot on earth where the fruit can be produced in its mature and highest form. The millions invested in the industry represent the best intelligence and enterprise in our agricultural activities, already contributing substantially to the prosperity of the state with immeasurable possibilities in future development."

There are ten reasons why you should eat California ripe olives.

- Have a delicious flavor.
- Have a high food value.
- Can be given to children in place of candy.
- Can be eaten freely with no ill effects.
- Are an economical food.
- Are full of health giving oil.
- Are a typical California fruit.
- Make delicious salads.
- Are a good brain food.
- Are allowed to ripen on the tree.

Wednesday, March 31—Olive Day Boosters for the California Ripe Olive are determined to make March go out like the Lion, for they have already stretched their lines of promotion across the continent.

From the White House to the laborer's cottage, ripe olives will be a feature of the menus of this last day of the month. From the exquisite flavor imparted to the morning omelet by the chopped olives, to the relish with the course dinner, embracing the sandwiches at tea and the salad dressing at luncheon, reports indicate that a new proportion of the lovers of good living will enjoy California's distinctive contribution to the family and the hotel bill of fare.

President Wilson will receive from a specially designated representative of the growers a case of the choicest fruit, with all kinds of recipes for the use of the ripe olives. Members of the cabinet are included in the list of recipients of a contribution to the table and many of the other officials at the nation's capital will find samples of the delicacy before them.

Special Gift to Marshall

Nor will the visitor to California be forgotten. Officials of the growers' association, who have in charge the celebration of Olive Day determined that not only will Vice President Marshall have the California product before him here, but he will be presented with a case of specially selected containers, holding the choicest preparations, which after his inspection will be sent to his home, so that, having acquired a first taste for the delicacy the impression, which is certain to be favorable, will be confirmed into an constant demand. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt also will receive a reminder that California good things may be had without the borders of the State.

Special Cases Put Up

That the users of the fruit may know it in its highest form special cases for shipments have been put up and are now going out to all parts of the country, through the desire of residents here to put their friends in far-away land in touch with the good things. These cases have packages of the largest and the smallest olives put out, and the range of size is remarkable. There are eight sizes packed, and three grades of quality of the fruit. The sizes run from the colossal, of which thirty make a pound, to the small, where 200 are put into the same weight can. These in the highest grades are all of the same flavor. In the general trade there is little demand for anything but the best, and only first class fruit is to be used in the wide distribution which is to mark the day's celebration.

STATE HIGHWAY PLANTING TO BE STARTED SHORTLY

Tree planting on the State highway will commence within a few days. This was the report made by County Forester J. M. Grant to the Board of Forestry at its regular monthly meeting at the courthouse yesterday.

Grant read the permit issued by the State Highway Commission, under which the planting is to be done. Under that permit further directions must be received from W. Lewis Clark, division engineer of the State commission. Grant said that he had written to Commissioner Darlington in Los Angeles, setting forth that the tree planting crews are ready to go to work on the State highway, and the commissioner replied that the division engineer is out of the city for a few days, but on his return he would get in touch with Grant at once so that the planting can go ahead.

Grant reported that eleven and a half miles of county roads have been planted.

Automatic sprinklers are to be installed in the lawn at the County Hospital. The forestry board recommended to the purchasing agent the buying of a system that had been investigated by the county forester. The county will buy the material and the work of installing the system will be done by prisoners under the direction of employees of the forestry board.

Dangerous Corner
It was stated by Grant that the petition for the removal of the cypress hedge at the corner of North Main and Chapman streets, west of Orange, had been included in the petition to the State Highway Commission for planting and he said that when he sees the division engineer he will get definite permission to have the hedges removed.

A. E. Bennett called attention to the fact that there is a dangerous corner at the corner of East Fourth street and Tustin Avenue where the apricot trees are so close to the corner that the view is obstructed.

Grant stated that hereafter he will grant no permits for trimming to any person except upon the condition that the limbs and leaves are thoroughly cleaned up.

Forester's Report

County Forester Grant reports for the month ending March 31 as follows:

Mr. President and Gentlemen: Good progress has been made along all lines of our work for the month, ending March.

PLANTING—Beginning at the County lines, West Fifth Street to Garden Grove, Anaheim road planting has been completed, with the exception of about 30 trees on the West Fifth Street Road, situated on property not yet deeded to the County, also a small piece near to Blankenbiller's store. Soil and trees for this area will require special treatment before planting.

In Garden Grove proper, no trees will be set out before the fall of the year, as I will then have a much larger size tree for planting.

Garden Grove Road to County Hospital—This road has been completed. Villa Park—About one-quarter of a mile has been planted to Palms and Pittosporum undulatum.

Yorba Linda—One mile of street planting and an eight-acre park has been planted to Oaks, Palms, Conifers, Acacias, etc.

Westminster—Sixty-two trees have

Rides Like The Car Wheels On Steel Rails

That's the plan of construction in the "Creeping Grip" tractor. It lays and carries its own track, it rides smoothly, creeping over the soil with a firm grip. It loses no power in slippage—it never makes itself an enemy of the soil. It is the greater power delivered at the draw bar. Here's the tractor that cuts the cost of plowing and gets crops in on time.

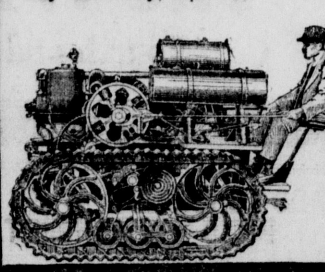

"Creeping Grip" Tractor

can enter soft fields in early spring when other tractors must be idle waiting for wet spots to dry. By comparison the creepers are lighter on the soil than an engine wagon. They climb and oscillate over obstructions, carrying the machine on a center axle. Two points of contact rest on the ground, thus avoiding jolts on the machine. The frame rides on 3 points of suspension, which eliminates binding on bearings—upkeep cost is reduced to a minimum.

been supplied to Mr. McFadden for planting on the Westminster Plaza. Varieties being: Oak, Conifer, Acacia, Palm, Cypress and Pittosporums. Other varieties will be supplied them in the fall of the year.

Placentia—At Placentia School 119 plants were planted on the ground and around the buildings.

Watering—All trees set out on the roads named have been watered once. Number of Miles Planted—Eleven and one-half miles.

Hospital Grounds

Good progress has been made on the roads and lawns. Six car loads of rock, being 180 tons, transported by our truck from West Orange depot, have been laid down. Four more car loads will complete the foundation work. When this is completed, Supervisor Leek will then take over the work of surfacing and curbing. Some grading has yet to be done on the lawn before the water system can be laid down. Plans for the water system are now in the hands of the Purchasing Agent.

Court House Grounds

The work of renovating the grounds is now well under way. The lawns have been thoroughly fertilized and are now beginning to show a healthy dark green color. Fertilizer used, was of our own composition. A number of the beds have been planted to annuals, etc.

Owing to having about 8000 plants on hand for planting just as the rainy weather set in, I was somewhat pushed for time, being unable to get the necessary soil composition, or make any headway during the January and February months; so that, when the good weather did set in, I had to work overtime.

Through the splendid cooperation of the Sheriff, I was enabled to use good merit prisoners' overtime. These prisoners volunteered for the work, which was the loading and unloading of leaf mold at the grounds and County Park. Permission for them to work was granted by the Sheriff, as an incentive to their future further good behavior.

Nursery—Considerable transplanting and seed-sowing has been done. Plants are healthy and in good color and form.

General—Since the date of the last Board meeting, I was invited by the Southern California Arboricultural Association to make a talk before their body in Convention Hall, Exposition, San Diego; the subject being: "The Work of the Orange County Board of Forestry."

I appeared before this body on the 9th instant, and outlined the work, as laid down by the Board of Forestry for this county. Many questions were asked from the body of the hall by visitors to the Exposition, who generally stated what state they came from: New York, Altoona, Pennsylvania; Ann Arbor, Michigan; Key West, Florida were represented.

Personal—I have to thank the Sheriff for the splendid manner in which he has cooperated with the work of Forestry Board and to the able and intelligent manner in which the guards of the prison crews carried out the work as laid down.

'SWAT THAT FLY' IS SLOGAN OF CAMPAIGN

As a part of our clean-up campaign him good and plenty.

And begin NOW with preventative measures.

PREVENTION—that's the only way we can make any headway against flies. Kill them before they are born. The common house fly breeds in kitchen garbage, in human excrement and in animal manure. The blue bottle fly breeds in decaying meat. Hence when you permit flies to get into your home they become the connecting link between your food on the one hand and the garbage can, out-house and stable on the other, transmitting to your table particles of filth and germs of disease. The germs of typhoid fever, diarrhoea and consumption are among those transmitted in this way.

Strike at Breeding Place

"If you have flies in your house look out for the breeding places in the immediate neighborhood. The most effective way to exterminate the fly is to strike at its breeding place. Destroy the future fly by preventing flies from laying an average of about 2,000 eggs, which in a few days hatch into maggots. The maggots soon creep into the ground and form pupae, which after ten days develop into young flies. The complete cycle takes about 15 days. Do not try to kill the maggots by covering them with dirt, as this does not prevent their development."

Care of Garbage Keep the garbage in tightly covered cans so that the flies cannot enter and lay their eggs. If your can is not tight, spray its contents each day with the following mixture:

Kerosene, one quart, crude carbolic acid, half ounce (one tablespoon). This solution will prevent the flies from alighting on the garbage and will destroy the eggs and maggots which are already in it. A metal spray such as is used for spraying plants will answer for this purpose. A simple and probably the better way, is either to burn or bury the garbage.

Anent Clean Stables

Do not allow manure to accumulate in your stable. Have it hauled away at least once a week and spread. The sun will then destroy the eggs and maggots. Clean the stalls daily and throw the manure in fly-tight covered boxes. Throw a handful of chloride of lime into the manure box every few days or sprinkle a little crude borax over the top. Spray any loose manure about the barn with the kerosene-carbolic acid mixture.

In the country where there are no sewers, out-houses should be fly-tight with doors and windows screened. All cracks and crevices should be sealed with putty or pitch so that flies cannot enter and lay their eggs. The kerosen-carbolic acid mixture is here also of value in destroying eggs and maggots.

How to Kill 'Em

Here is a simple mixture that will kill flies; and as it seems to have an attraction for them is most effective for keeping your premises rid of the nasty little pests: Take a pint of milk and water in equal parts and add two tablespoonfuls of formaldehyde. Pour this mixture into plates or any shallow vessel with two or three small squares of bread in each vessel. The squares of bread furnish lighting and feeding places for the flies; the bread absorbs the poison and adds to its efficiency. It is a good plan to place the vessels on the back porch just outside the kitchen door, being careful to see that there is no other food for the flies to get. As is well known, when a meal is in preparation, flies will be attracted from quite a distance by the odors of the cooking and will swarm on the kitchen doors and windows, seeking to get inside. Have the milk and formaldehyde mixture ready for them and they will not live long enough to bother you with their unwelcome and dangerous attentions. The formaldehyde is poisonous and consequently the mixture should be kept out of reach of the children.

Is Always on the Job

There are in the United States, at all times, 1,500,000 people sick from preventable diseases, many of them due to the fly. Every day 1,700 people die from preventable disease. Don't have clean-up day once a year. Clean up every day. The little fly is always on the job. It never takes a rest. Man must kill the fly or the fly will kill the man.

FREIGHT BODY TO HOLD SESSION THIS WEEK

The San Bernardino Sun of Sunday, March 28, says:

"Full details of the latest order issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission on Pacific coast rates to terminals and intermediate points, have been received by George M. Cooley, president of the Interior Counties Freight Bureau. and he stated last night that he expects to call the bureau together perhaps during the present week, when future policy must be determined upon, both with reference to appearances before the commission, and also as to details here at home.

"It really requires the services of an expert, a traffic man familiar with the work and able to give his time to it, if shippers are to be protected," said Mr. Cooley. "With the changes and reductions in rates that have been made, every expense bill should be checked over by an expert. Not only so, but all of these new schedules, like the local rate sheet just put out by the Santa Fe, should be gone over to see that neither by error nor by the activities of our friends in other shipping centers, are we undermined."

"Mr. Cooley declares that the recent decision has worked a very great saving to local shippers who bring car lots from the East. To explain this was one of the purposes of his recent trip to Imperial county. Shippers there have been members of the local bureau from the start and the latest ratings many times repays their share of the bureau's expense of maintenance."

Dollar Day April 3—
 GARDEN GROVE

THE ENTERTAINMENT A DECIDED SUCCESS

GARDEN GROVE, March 30.—The entertainment given for the benefit of the Garden Grove Y. M. C. A., under the management of E. M. Brown, secretary, was a great success. The orchestra, consisting of Francis Haynes, Mrs. Haynes, Mr. Warner, Wesley Jayne, George Baker, Lillard Tyrrel, Cecil Berthier and Edward Burns, with Mr. Haynes as leader, furnished delightful music, and a male quartet composed of Harry Garstang, Charles Johnston, W. L. Baker and Richard Garstang, rendered several selections which were much appreciated by the audience.

Mrs. E. M. Brown's humorous readings were of a high order. The audience had no mercy on her and brought her back several times. Mr. Garstang with his fairy bells, Mrs. Ben Blee with her fancy club swinging and Raymond Beebe with his magic sleight of hand exhibition were among the most enjoyable features of the evening. The evening's entertainment was under the auspices of the Older Boys' Bible class.

During the evening Mr. Anderson and Mr. Brown made some remarks regarding the success of the Bible class work in Garden Grove and throughout the county.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Bible class and for beautifying of the room and grounds of the Garden Grove association.

The Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church will give an Easter social at the Y. M. C. A. building Friday evening, April 2. A cafeteria supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Good music will be furnished during the evening. The proceeds will be devoted to missionary work.

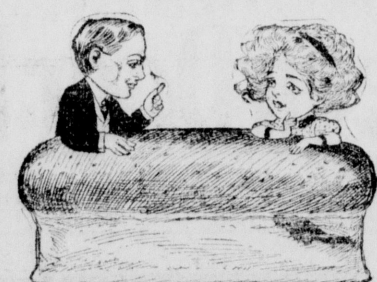

Frank Bissett and his brother, George Bissett, and family, motored to Venice Friday and spent the day. His brother and family have been in Southern California for a month visiting relatives and places of interest.

They left Venice Friday evening for the exposition at San Francisco and then on to their home in Kansas.

Miss Pearl McGill, Miss Julia McGill, Mrs. Myrtle Cain, Miss Mildred Harper, Henley Ellis, Morris Cain and James McGill motored to the foot of the trail at Saddleback Saturday afternoon. They camped within a mile of the Joplin ranch Saturday night, and spent the evening in singing and conversation around the campfire. About 3 o'clock Sunday morning they were awakened by rain and had to get up and dry their clothes. About 8 o'clock they took short trips, but it had rained enough to make it slippery, so they could not go far up the trail. They reached home about 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. T. McElree was entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. W.

$10,000,000 TO NEW VARIETY OF AID MINISTERS IS SOUGHT MAN IS NOW APPEARING

CHICAGO, March 31.—Aid for the $10,000,000 fund for superannuated ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church is coming from unexpected sources. J. T. B. Smith, editor of the Veteran Preacher and connected with the office of Dr. Joseph B. Hingeley, corresponding secretary of the board of conference claimants, 1018 South Wabash avenue, in discussing plans for the convention to be held in Chicago next month, gave some instances of sacrifice.

An aged minister of the Illinois conference, who is nearly blind and in poverty, sent a dollar to the fund. He wrote Dr. Hingeley as follows: "I am a superannuated preacher of the Illinois conference; have passed my eightieth birthday, am almost blind and badly afflicted. Wife and I, out of extreme poverty, send you this dollar for your ammunition wagon, as a slight expression of our gratitude to you and to the great Methodist Episcopal Church, for what is being done for veterans of the cross and their families."

Another dollar came from a retired minister of the New York conference in California.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.
Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.—Advertisement.

DALLAS, Texas, Mar. 31.—A new race of men is beginning to appear in America, according to Miss Annie McQueen, a theosophist lecturer. This race, she asserts, will have the sixth sense; that is, will be able to live consciously in the "astral body" and the "physical body" at the same time and while in normal condition in everyday life. For example, this new race will be able to look through objects as an X-Ray does.

Miss McQueen gave the following interesting explanation of the relation of birth to environment:

"In seeking reincarnation the ego looks for a suitable environment. All the savages are not in South Africa. They find a congenial environment in the slums of our cities and appear there instead of in the wilds of heathen lands. So long as our cities tolerate slums they may expect that they will attract savages."

Dollar Day April 3—

IS AS SANITARY AS CREMATION

Medical science has ever been loud in its protest against earth burials, and for generations has endeavored to make popular what seemed to be the only satisfactory substitute—incineration or cremation. From the standpoint of sanitation and strict science there is much to recommend it; but so long as there continues to flow through the human heart the warm red corpuscles of affection and sentiment, so long as we have the tender affection of motherhood, cremation will not become a satisfactory solution of the problem. Religious conviction and sensibility and the public necessity of protecting society from undiscovered crime argue effectively against destruction by fire, ancient as the custom may be and however much can be said in its favor on sanitary grounds.

In referring to cremation as a substitute for earth burial, Rev. Samuel Small says: "Some have sought to find the scientific and sanitary solution of this question in the cremation of the bodies of dead persons, but this method is so repulsive to the reverent mind that it remains now as the fad only of the coldly callous materialists who assume that 'Death ends all' and the finale of life is fire. The great furnace, the fierce heat, the visible and swift incineration, the urn of ashes—a handful of nothing and a heartful of that is all! Who but an oyster-souled person could find any consolation in such a disposition of the remains of a loved one? And who can wonder that cremation has come to represent only the ancient idea of Gehenna—the never-ceasing burning fire for refuse cast without the city walls?"

In the modern mausoleum the sanitary advantages of cremation are fully realized without the abhorrent features of destruction. In a veritable marble palace, beautiful in design and ornamentation, the body of the loved one reposes in its snow white room, where, by means of patented and thoroughly effected sanitary devices a process of desiccation or drying up, takes place, tending to preserve the entity of the body instead of destroying it. Here, it is forever protected from all elements of decay and destruction. What a comfort to those who are left behind to realize that, only a few inches from their touch, the body they had fondled and caressed, the beautiful robe, the downy couch, the floral tributes, will remain practically as they last saw them for all time to come.

Compartment can be had in the Mausoleum to be erected in Fairhaven Cemetery. The building will be under direct supervision of the Fairhaven Cemetery Association. Subscribe for space now, while you can have pick of location. There will be nothing to pay until actual construction commences and the foundations are complete. Those wishing further information either telephone or write the Granite Mausoleum Co., 236 Spurgeon building, Pacific phone 888, and more thorough information on the subject can be obtained.—Advertisement.

FLORIDA SOON TO START SHIPPING VALENCIAS

Cars moved last week 678
Cars moved week before last 763
Total to date 21,146

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Mar. 23.—The citrus fruit movement last week was 247 cars of grapefruit and 431 cars of oranges. The total movement for the week was 75 cars less than the week previous.

The demand for Florida citrus fruit is increasing and prices on oranges have advanced considerably. The fruit is now holding firm at an advance over prices obtained during the past three months. The fruit is at its best, very sweet and full of juice and there has been little complaint of drying out on the trees, as the weather conditions have been such that the fruit has not deteriorated even when hanging on trees which are full of bloom. There has been so much moisture that the trees have been able to hold their fruit and to put on bloom, too.

The citrus fruit season is backward and the bloom is not as early as last season, as the groves have been held back by the cold weather.

The crop of Valencia's will start to move next week and as this variety is in good shape, it is believed that prices will remain firm. Grapefruit also is holding its own and the demand is improving. A good pack of the right sizes is bringing reasonably fair prices in almost every market. Indications seem to point to a successful finish of the citrus fruit season, if reasonable care is taken in the marketing of the balance of the crop.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

With the hastening of the spring season prices in the nut list have shown several declines in the past few days, particularly in walnuts and almonds. With the exception of the nonpareil grade of almonds, the other grades have declined approximately 1 cent a pound, while that specified has gone up that amount, the best grade being scarce. Budded walnuts, which sold up to 22½ cents, are now obtainable at 21 cents, while jumbo size is down to 19 cents. The eastern nuts are pretty well cleaned up. Brazils are still plentiful and unchanged. The all-year-around demand for nuts is much heavier now than it was three or five years ago, owing to the increasing number of candy manufacturers and the greater output of their factories, which require large quantities of nut meats.

The price of eggs has been very firm for several days and yesterday the market on case count went to 20 cents here, while in the north it dropped back to 21 cents.

in and for said county and state, residing therein, my commission expires on the 1st day of January, 1916, personally appeared Joe Shusta and John Carwell, known to me to be the persons whose names are subscribed to the within and foregoing instrument, and acknowledged to me that they executed the same.

Witness my hand and the seal of my office this 16th day of March, 1915.
(Seal) CHARLES H. STANLEY,
Notary Public in and for the County of Orange, State of California.

Be Wise

and buy land in a new and growing locality where you get the benefit of the first low prices and easy terms,
low interest, low taxes and cheap water;
near a good market and in a fine social environment, with schools, churches, library, stores, electric lights, water system, free delivery and co-operation. Homeseekers, it is well worth while for you to go and see the new subdivision of the big Dunlap ranch, right here in Southern California.
Don't think of locating till you have seen the Dunlap ranch, the soil, the water, the location. Twice a week we make a one day automobile trip to this land. Go with us and see for yourself what it is like. Come and see about it. Telephone 161.
